

The Future Thinkers, Doers and Innovators Fund Established by Dun & Bradstreet Credibility Corp

Parent Verification Form

- The “Future Thinkers, Doers and Innovators Fund” will provide funding for student participation in national conferences related to academic or career interests; national performing arts competitions; and academic challenge competitions, such as Science Olympiad, Odyssey of the Mind or Robotics.
- The fund will be a need-based scholarship program
- The primary focus for this fund will be assisting students in grades 6-12.
- Seniors are not eligible for scholarships for programs occurring after graduation.
- Students may request up to 35% of the per-person cost (up to $750), though priority will be given to students with the greatest demonstrated financial need.
- Barring extraordinary circumstances, applications from students with an annual family income of more than $35,000 will not be considered. Please note that families making less than $35,000 are not guaranteed funding.

The applicant’s parent or guardian must provide the following information and return this form to the teacher or other school personnel in charge of the field trip. This form must be submitted with all other parent verification forms before the student’s application can be considered.
